

WELTKULTUREN MUSEUM

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Leonie Neumann, M. A.

Leonie Neumann studied ethnology, sociology and cultural anthropology at Göttingen University, where she specialised in East Africa with an emphasis on Zanzibar.

After graduation she worked as a project manager until she came to the Weltkulturen Museum Frankfurt am Main in 2018. During her scholarly traineeship she became deputy head of Visual Anthropology, participated in two of the museum's major exhibitions, and in 2020 she curated the special exhibition SW5Y - Five Years of Civil Sea Rescue in conjunction with the sea-rescue organisation Sea Watch e.V.

Leonie Neumann has been deputy curator of the Africa section since May 2020.

CONTACT

leonie.neumann@stadt-frankfurt.de

+49 (0)69 212 31313